ABOUT THE CO-SPONSORING AGENCIES

NEW JERSEY STATE COUNCIL ON THE ARTS

The New Jersey State Council on the Arts, created in 1966, is a division of the NJ Department of State and a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts. Public support for the arts in New Jersey is drawn from a dedicated, renewable revenue source - the Hotel/Motel Occupancy Fee - as well as an annual, competitive federal grant from the National Endowment for the Arts. The Council was established to encourage and foster public interest in the arts; enlarge public and private resources devoted to the arts; promote freedom of expression in the arts; and facilitate the inclusion of art in every public building in New Jersey. The Council believes the arts are central to every element we value most in a modern society including: human understanding; cultural and civic pride; strong communities; excellent schools; lifelong learning; creative expression; and economic opportunity.

THE MERCER COUNTY DIVISION OF CULTURE & HERITAGE

The Mercer County Division of Culture & Heritage is proud to co-sponsor this important exhibit in partnership with the New Jersey State Council on the Arts. The Division provides year-round programming in the arts, cultural heritage, and regional history. It administers the County's Local Arts Partnership and History Regrant grant programs, providing funding and organizational support to over 50 non-profits annually. Other Division programs include annual Teen Arts and Cultural Festivals, co-sponsored County art and photography exhibits, the Mercer County Senior Art show, and other programs aimed at showcasing the art, culture and history of greater Mercer County. We are grateful to our associates from Mercer County's Office on Aging and other County volunteers for their help with this Art Show. We are also grateful to the residents and staff of Meadow Lakes, whose support ensures that this annual exhibit continues to present the State's older artists in the best possible light.

MEADOW LAKES

Since 2009, Meadow Lakes has graciously served as the host site for New Jersey's Senior Citizen Art Show. The community at Meadow Lakes continues to be a warm, welcoming, and enthusiastic partner in celebrating the creativity of our state's senior artists.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to Jennifer Miller, Director of Life Enrichment of Springpoint at Meadow Lakes, the Meadow Lakes Art Club members and the broader resident community for their ongoing support—especially Diane Hughes, who has served as our dedicated liaison since 2022. Each year, Diane thoughtfully assembles a team of energetic and committed volunteers who play an essential role in bringing this exhibition to life, handling every detail of the installation process with care and enthusiasm.

THANK YOU TO THIS 2025 ROSTER OF MEADOW LAKES VOLUNTEERS:

ABOUT THE JURORS

Anne Feinstein

Anne Feinstein is a professional artist and arts instructor residing in Vineland, NJ. She has been an illustrator, graphic designer, painter, sculptor, arts teacher, and dental technician/researcher. She has lived abroad, in New England and returned to her native South Jersey. Her art is a conglomeration of all of the above. Feinstein's current medium of choice is gouache but in the past, oils, watercolor and sculpture have also figured into her repertoire. Feinstein favors work that inspires emotion, good or bad, and she tries to have the same effect with her own artwork. Her artwork is in private collections nationally, but mostly collected within her beloved Southern New Jersey. Feinstein has been an arts educator of 6-12 graders, taught workshops in a variety of mediums, been an active board member of Gallery 50, Inc., Bridgeton, NJ, judged exhibitions and competed in art competitions, won awards. She is currently retired from all of the above and happily painting for her own pleasure

Juror Statement:

"It was both exciting and a bit daunting to judge the 'New Jersey Senior Citizen Art Show'. Being a senior myself added to my expectations to see great work. I was not disappointed but it did make the process more difficult. I focused on works that evoked an emotion - did it make me feel something or maybe there was an element of surprise. Technical ability was also considered but was not the main consideration. The hardest part of the process was editing down to First, Second, Third... I was told by one resident that this show is anticipated annually because of the quality of the work. There is truth in that statement."

- Anne Feinstein

ABOUT THE JURORS

Aylin Green

Aylin Green has served as the Executive Director of West Windsor Arts since July 2015. She is a leading member of a regional project called “Arts & Health Mercer” which brings a greater appreciation, understanding and experience of how the arts are integral to the health of individuals and communities through an alignment of programming across participating organizations. A practicing artist and experienced curator, Aylin has exhibited her sculpture and paintings at traditional and alternative art venues throughout the region for over 20 years, and her work is held in many private collections. Public art projects have included murals in the city of Trenton and the grant funded "Trenton Art Puzzle" project. As an educator, she has taught classes for adults and children in a variety of media from experimental to traditional and in a range of educational settings including private studios, city and county programs, public schools, and art centers. Aylin Green holds a Masters of Ed from Tufts University in Boston, MA, and a BFA in Sculpture from Mason Gross School of the Arts at Rutgers University.

Juror Statement:

“This collection showcases the vitality and dedication of artists who prove that creative expression knows no age limits. The variety of styles and subjects on display demonstrates both individual vision and a shared commitment to the artistic process. It was a privilege to review work that reflects such genuine engagement with art-making and personal expression.” - Aylin Green

ABOUT THE JURORS

Lauren Whearty

Lauren Whearty is an artist, educator, writer and curator living and working in Philadelphia, PA. She received her MFA from The Ohio State University (Columbus, OH), and her BFA from Tyler School of Art, Temple University (Philadelphia, PA) and has been a Co-Director at Ortega y Gasset Projects, an artist-run curatorial collective and non-profit in Brooklyn, NY since 2017. Lauren's paintings transform everyday spaces—gardens, interiors, and personal objects—into richly colored, gestural worlds where observation and invention intertwine. Rooted in a feminist lineage that reclaims the domestic as a site of vision and resilience, her work preserves what is fragile and fleeting while celebrating the joy and vitality of daily life. Lauren Whearty currently teaches at Tyler School of Art & Architecture in Philadelphia.

Juror Statement:

“I was honored to be selected as one of the jurors for this year's prestigious exhibition. It was a pleasure to spend time closely looking at such a wide body of work and talent. The range of styles and expertise of each artist made it difficult to choose the awardees. I especially love to see work that is thoughtful, unique and experiments playfully with their chosen medium. Thank you for the opportunity to get to know so many New Jersey Artists.” - Lauren Whearty

COUNTY COORDINATORS

This exhibition showcases the first-place winners from 19 senior citizen art shows held earlier this year. We extend our sincere gratitude to the devoted coordinators and associates whose efforts made these local events possible, and who ensured the careful handling and transportation of the exceptional artwork presented here today. Contact your local county coordinator to learn more about your county senior art show!
